

Members and Friends of Deutsche Schule Melbourne

(via email)

5 February 2008

INVITATION TO OFFICIALLY OPEN THE DEUTSCHE SCHULE MELBOURNE
(GERMAN-ENGLISH BILINGUAL SCHOOL)

Dear members and friends of Deutsche Schule Melbourne

I have the pleasure to invite you to attend the opening of Deutsche Schule Melbourne, the German-English bilingual school, on Tuesday, 19 February 2008 from 1:30pm to 3pm at the school premises in 138 Barkly Street, North Fitzroy.

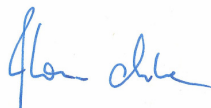

The school is commencing operations in January 2008 with grades prep, 1 and 2 and will subsequently grow to cover all grades including secondary school. The vision for children at DSM is "to live and learn two cultures", preparing the children to become involved citizens of an increasingly global world.

The school caters for families with German language connections, as well as those that are interested in providing their children with the opportunity to learn a second language as a "mother tongue".

It is envisaged that the opening event will be attended by the German Ambassador in Australia, local and international media, representatives from the German community in Melbourne, including the German Consulate, the Goethe Institut and the German Chamber of Industry and Commerce, as well as various business leaders.

I would be delighted if you could attend the opening ceremony and look forward to your reply at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Florian Dehne
Chairman of the Board
Deutsche Schule Melbourne